("Shurgard")

Shurgard opens new self-storage facility in the Paris region (Corbeil-Essonnes)

LUXEMBOURG – Shurgard, the largest developer, owner and operator of self-storage centers in Europe – is pleased to announce the opening of its new self-storage facility on July 23, 2020 in Corbeil-Essonnes. The construction project is part of the company’s ongoing expansion in the Paris region.

The new c. 6,000 sqm multi-storey building is located on Route de Lisses, offering more than 800 storage units on the ground floor and first floor.

With a wide range of storage units from 1 to 27 square metres, Shurgard is serving both individuals and small businesses in Corbeil-Essonnes.

This brand-new facility offers many benefits for residents and businesses, including excellent access from the motorway, ground floor units with direct vehicle access and two exterior loading areas for convenient loading and unloading.

Shurgard currently operates 61 convenient locations near main roads and public transport in and around Paris, Lyon, Marseille, Bordeaux, Nice and Lille.
