Shurgard announces charity partnership in London

LUXEMBOURG – Shurgard, the largest developer, owner and operator of self-storage centers in Europe – is pleased to announce its new charity partnership with the Mayor's Fund for London, an independent pan-London charity offering support to young Londoners from low-income backgrounds.

Shurgard will donate £10,000 to the Mayor's Fund for London - which will be invested in wellbeing, skills and employment - and will take part in events and webinars providing career advice to young adults.

Marc Oursin, Chief Executive Officer of Shurgard Self-Storage, comments:

"Now, more than ever, it's important to invest in the future of young people and we look forward to getting actively involved in the Fund's Access Inspiration programme. The Funds' focus on wellbeing and employment fits hand in hand with our own business vision and goals."

Kirsty Mchugh, Chief Executive, Mayor's Fund for London, agrees that COVID-19 has made life really hard for London's young people. They have missed out on schooling, crucial careers advice and now face an uncertain future. "We are absolutely delighted that Shurgard has chosen the Mayor's Fund to be their charity partner. Their support will enable us to deliver vital careers guidance, help build confidence and ultimately improve the employment prospects of thousands of young Londoners, particularly those from low income backgrounds."
