Shurgard signs a purchase agreement for a land in the Paris region

LUXEMBOURG – Shurgard, the largest developer, owner and operator of self-storage centers in Europe – has signed a purchase agreement for a land in Paris and is expecting to receive a building permit for a new storage facility during the course of 2021.

This project will reinforce our leadership position in the Paris region with 42 properties.

The future c. 5,500 sqm self-storage property is set to open by year-end 2021 and will offer approximately 800 self-storage units to the Paris region.
