Shurgard opens new self-storage facility in London (Barking)

LUXEMBOURG – Shurgard, the largest developer, owner and operator of self-storage centers in Europe – is pleased to announce the opening of its new self-storage facility in Barking on January 9, 2021. The construction project is part of the company's ongoing expansion in London.

Shurgard Barking is offering over 1,100 storage units (74,000 sq ft) spread over seven floors.

With a wide variety of storage units from lockers to 240 square feet units, Shurgard is serving both individuals and businesses in London.

This brand-new facility offers many benefits for Londoners, including excellent access from the motorway, a large customer parking and a covered unloading area for convenient loading and unloading.

Shurgard currently operates 33 convenient storage locations - representing over 1.8 million square feet - near main roads and public transport right across the whole of Greater London and into the Thames Valley.

About Shurgard
