Shurgard Self Storage SA
("Shurgard")

Shurgard signs another purchase agreement in the Paris region (south of Yvelines)

LUXEMBOURG – Shurgard, the largest developer, owner and operator of self-storage centers in Europe – has signed a purchase agreement for a building located south-west of central Paris.

The future c. 5,000 sqm self-storage property is set to open by end 2022 and will offer approximately 750 self-storage units to the area.

Shurgard is currently offering self storage in 40 properties in the Paris region and has also five other projects in the pipeline in that region. These five projects represent 30,000 sqm of additional self-storage space or 15% of the existing Shurgard footprint in the Paris region.

- Argenteuil and Morangis - both under construction and set to open in 2021
- Lagny also under construction and set to open in 2022
- One property for which a regular building permit process is ongoing
- And finally this newly acquired building.
